

You're here to Stay!

So you decided to come back with a bang!
Entering individuals in ways when they sang
Not prepared for this journey dear Covid
You really hurt my mummy, so move it!

Each day the news portrayed a different story
Was scarier than Balamory
Death rates were shockingly high
I closed my eyes and prayed with a sigh!

You closed down schools once again
Lockdown we didn't want, Ben Ten!
But you love to disrupt, flip and shame
Nonetheless, we too roar the same!

The nation's hero Joe Wicks delivered once again
Star jumps, lunges to ascertain
Bitcoin soaring
World Leaders roaring!

New variants found its way to our homeland
Why Mr. Prime Minister were you slow to the sand?
Fed up is an understatement
I just want to see my friends on a familiar pavement!

Vaccines are on the rollout
Mental health challenged to breathe out
Normality is still in the distance
Compromising our very own existence!

The weather's shining as a sunflower now
8th March here we bow
Positivity and prayer is everything
Peace & serenity will keep us going!
