

We are a Right Respecting School and this statement supports the following articles from the UN Convention on the Rights of a Child
Article 3 (best interests of the child)
The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all actions concerning children.
Article 12 (respect for the views of the child)
Every child has the right to say what they think in all matters affecting them, and to have their views taken seriously.
Article 13 (freedom of expression)
Every child must be free to say what they think and to seek and receive information of any kind as long as it is within the law.

Year 4, Spring Term Painting Landscape in Pieces

Year 4 researched and responded to the work of Paula Rego, who tells stories through pictures. Then we recreated a story - "The Crocodile and the Monkey", and told it using our own pictures.

Next, we researched and responded to the works of Lucian Freud, and had a go at painting a portrait.

Then, Year 4 researched and responded to the work of Thomas Gainsborough.

For our final piece, we brought all of our ideas together to paint a section of the landscape of a tea plantation, to link with our topic - Chembakolli, in the style of Gainsborough.
